The attempt to attract manufacturers to Washington has again produced sporadic cases of annexation fever. The cases, so far, are of a mild type. One writer in a Washington paper in suggesting the absorption of Alexandria by the District of Columbia says the land about the new union railroad yards offers splendid building sites for warehouses of wholesale merchants. The writer also says that "the people of Alexandria no doubt will be delighted to come back and have their old town embraced within the corporate limits of the national capital." It can be positively stated that the people of the good old town desire no such thing, and will, as heretofore, resist any such movement even to the court of last resort. Annexation, like the seventeen-year locust, makes its appearance periodically. A few years ago it was the dream of a few people in Alexandria city and county, but it eventually passed away like other hallucinations, since which time no one seems to have given annexation serious consideration. There are many still living who remember conditions that existed while Alexandria was the fall of the District, nearly three-score years ago, when all the money for public buildings and improvements was spent north of the Potomac. This would continue to be the case were Alexandria again made part of the District of Columbia. This city would not be benefited in any way by the change. The report made by Senator Hoar in the Senate a year or two before he died on the retrocession question should convince all sane people that Alexandria will never again become a part of the District of Columbia.

"GIRLS IN LOVE are not competent to teach school." This was the decree proclaimed in Mansfield, O., recently by a jury in the Common Pleas Court in the suit of Ethel M. Downend against the Madison Township Board of Education for $328.42. Miss Downend was discharged as teacher of music several months before the expiration of her contract, the board alleging incompetency. Miss Downend then sued for the remainder of her salary. The defense proved that she was in love with a young man while she was teaching school and the jury decided that love made her incompetent. This should be a warning to all school teachers who, under this decision, must understand that their lovemaking must be confined to vacation days.

THE BODY OF Mrs. Mary Fay, who died at New York last week at the age of 105 years, was found to be in so unusual a state of preservation that the coroner's physician called in other doctors to observe the case. They were amazed to find the body like that of a healthy woman of 30, and inquiry brought out the fact that the old lady had lived for forty years almost exclusively upon a diet of dry bread and milk, refusing meat or vegetables altogether. The doctors are wondering if this corroborates to some extent the theory of Professor Metchnikoff, of Paris, that the ferment germs in our milk are deadly enemies to the putrefactive germs of the stomach and intestines.

JUDGE COWAN, of Texas, says that the voters of the country west of the Mississippi river will vote in November for the candidates for Congress who will pledge themselves to reduce the tariff in the interest of a larger export trade. The demand will not be confined to the farther side of the Father of Waters. Mr. Herley, of Indiana, formerly chairman of the republican State committee, is out with an attack upon the Congressmen from his State who "stood pat." "Everybody is for tariff revision," he says, "except the protected interests and a few politicians. When steel rails sell for $28 a ton in the United States and $18 a ton in Canada it is time something was done."

M. E. INGALLS, chairman of the commission of fifteen, sent by the civic federation to study municipal ownership in the cities of Europe, arrived at New York last week. To friends he intimated that the report of the commission would be adverse to the adoption of municipal ownership in this country. He said the report would be unanimous but it would not be ready for publication before October. This municipal ownership business is a delusion and a snare, and the promoters thereof, as a rule, are demagogues who hope in some way to profit thereby.

GOV. WARFIELD, of Maryland, has appointed Alfred S. Niles as associate judge of the supreme bench of Baltimore to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Baer. The appointment of Mr. Niles, it is said, is a direct slap at the regular democratic organization. Gov. Warfield would never have been governor of Maryland but for the regular organization, but now that he has attained his goal he seeks to throw down the ladder by which he attained his eminence. And the world is full of just such intrigues.

SENATOR ALLISON, of Iowa, is an old man, and the announcement that he has Bright's disease is alarming. He considered one of the leaders and his talent for compromise has pointed a good many jests. Senator Ingalls, who cultivated the art of making enemies, said of Mr. Allison's smooth and pacific manners that he could run ten miles on a corduroy road in wooden shoes and not be heard. But the Senator has been a sturdy fighter at times and is a stand pater of the first water.

THE American Farm Products Company has been incorporated, with $20,000,000, to control butter, spring chickens and eggs. This completes the circle of trust-controlled articles. Everything that a man eats, drinks, wears, or uses in any other way, whether for travel, shelter, food, or raiment, is now controlled by a trust, and yet we are told to stand pat for this kind of prosperity. Let the trusts be exterminated and the tariff be banished.

PRIVILEGE is so strongly entrenched in our government that it can never be expelled until it is destroyed. Every compromise strengthens it. Hence the evil that lurks in the rate bill, the meat bill and the pure food bill. They are merely a step in the right direction, but do not strike at the root of the evils.

AGAIN have the last of the "insurgent Filipinos surrendered," and complete peace is now expected. This is the last dispatch from Manila, but similar reports were received in Spain periodically for nearly four hundred years.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, July 21. Prosecutions for alleged violations of the eight-hour law will be started by the Department of Justice within the next few days. Previous to the issuance of the order by the President that government inspectors shall report violations of the eight-hour law, information had been given to the department by the Bureau of Labor sufficient to justify the issuance of a warrant in several instances. In fact there were so many of these cases that Commissioner Neill, of the Bureau of Labor and in charge of the investigation of the American Federation of Labor complaints, had to call about for some effective means of getting reports on all and thus thought of having government inspectors report them. Where the law will fail first will not be stated at the Department of Justice. The Department will select a case for the first prosecution which will serve as an example to other contractors. It will involve no feature which might lose the case to the government. It is believed the first arrest will be on some very prominent work and in a large city where much attention will be attracted to the case.

Unable to construct and equip manufacturing industries to compete with northern establishments, the South has found one line along which she is making a blooming success, while the North must confess a poorer record. Throughout the South a profit is made out of every convict in its penal institutions. In the North the balance is on the other side, so says the Bureau of Labor, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, after an investigation of convict labor throughout the country. "While in the United States convicts were a burden on the public," reads the report of the investigators, "it is shown that the convicts in the penal institutions were a source of profit in Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, and Virginia. Allowing credit for the labor performed by convicts on public works and ways, the convicts were a source of profit in Georgia, Louisiana, Missouri, North Carolina, and South Carolina." No data was available to show the cost of conviction, and it could not be ascertained if the profit is sufficient to cover the additional item of expenses of getting the labor. The report also brings out the interesting fact, one regarded as of economic importance to the South, that many a position to observe claim that more work is done by a colored convict than by the average colored free laborer. In road building the convict in the South is generally rated as being nearly equal in efficiency to free laborers, and in some institutions his rating is higher.

On Monday next, the American Federation of Labor, through President Gompers and the members of the executive council, will issue a political proclamation to the workmen of America urging them to act as a unit against the election of candidates for office who are unopposed or indifferent to the interests of organized labor. President Gompers and many other labor leaders will go throughout the country making speeches in the districts of those members they will seek to defeat. Representative Littlefield, of Maine, is the first object of the federation's attack. During the campaign, President Gompers will make noonday speeches to the factory hands in Littlefield's district. Among other candidates who are on the federation's "black list," are: Speaker Cannon, Messrs. Payne, of New York; Dill, of Pennsylvania; Landis, of Indiana; Jenkins, of Wisconsin; and Parker, of New Jersey. All of the republican members of the judiciary committee will be put upon the list excepting Messrs. Peck, of Maryland, and Birdsell, of Iowa. All of the republican members of the labor committee are on the list, excepting possibly Chairman Gardner, of New Jersey.

Contractors on government works throughout the country may be hauled into the courts within the next few days to explain why they have been violating the eight-hour law. Complaints, numbering into the hundreds, have poured into the hands of the government officials conducting the investigation into the violation of the law as first alleged by the American Federation of Labor. These have been turned over to the Department of Justice for prosecution. Friends of the Roosevelt administration say the law will be rigidly enforced for the sake of justice; its opponents, that it is merely an ante-election political move.

With the order from the President, following the suggestion of Secretary Taft after a conference with Charles P. Neill, of the labor bureau, that all violations should be reported so that the Department of Justice may be aided in its enforcement of the law, came the suggestion that all violations during the past two years be reported. Where it is believed a case can be made prosecutions will follow.

There are now 4,023 Filipinos in office in the Philippines, as against 3,307 Americans. The Filipinos receive salaries, on an average of $400 each, while the Americans receive an average of about $1,300 each.

News of the Day.

The suspension of F. S. Hesse was announced on the New York Consolidated Exchange, today.

Two buffalo bulls fought an hour's battle in the Bronx Zoological Garden, New York, yesterday, one being killed.

Ground was broken at the Jamestown Exposition grounds, yesterday, for the reproduction of Independence Hall, Philadelphia.

It is announced that vice-President Fairbanks and Speaker Cannon will open the republican campaign in Missouri, in which State Bryan and Folk are scheduled to open the democratic campaign.

The national board of directors of the Travelers Protective Association in session in St. Louis yesterday fixed the date for the next annual meeting, which is to be held in Norfolk, for the week of June 10, to continue four days.

Mr. Scott Bone, who was for nearly 30 years the managing editor of the Washington Post, intends to start a new paper in Washington, to be known as the Washington Herald. The date of first publication is now set for September 15. The capital behind Mr. Bone is understood to be ample, being furnished by a syndicate, of whom the principal member is Mr. George Merriam, a wealthy packer of Mississippi.

Ella Farmerie, 18 years old, employed in the dressmaking department of the dry goods establishment of McCreery & Co., of Pittsburgh, Pa., was instantly killed yesterday by falling down the elevator shaft from the tenth floor of the building. Miss Farmerie walked to the door of the elevator, which had been left open. The car was on the lowest floor, and in some manner which has not been explained the young woman stepped into the shaft, landing on the roof of the cage. When found she was dead, both legs having been driven into the trunk of the body.

Albert Wegel was beaten into insensibility by Adolph Adams in Chicago yesterday, and was then kicked into the river. Before help could reach him he was drowned. The men, each of whom was driving a team, met at the foot of La Salle street and after a quarrel, where Wegel, who was much the smaller man, was knocked unconscious. Adams kicked him repeatedly, the last kick hurling Wegel off the dock into the stream. Adams was arrested after he had made a hard fight against three policemen.

THE BUSH MEETING ATTRACTED to the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette. We notice in your issue of the 19th some comments suggested from reading in a Virginia paper a notice of "some of the bush meeting attractions." We presume this refers to the Prohibition and Evangelical Association of Loudoun. If so we wish to state that for more than twenty successive years it has been our pleasure to attend those meetings and it is our honest conviction that we have been spiritually, mentally, morally, and physically benefited, and while laying no claims to high spiritual attainments or even a high moral altitude, we feel that we have been made rather the better, to put it in its mildest form, and would not hesitate to invite our most pious brothers to come up with us and it will do three good in listening to such distinguished speakers as the Hon. O. J. Stuart, of Chicago; Rev. John E. Young, of Richmond; Rev. John E. Brown, the great southern evangelist, and for a further list we would refer you to the posters. They are all brainy, oratorical men who have distinguished themselves all over the country, and we would suggest that although we may stand in with the old straight-reformed Presbyterians, or long-faced Methodist preachers, we will go up and take one little dose of the stuff any way. It may get some of the old kinks out of us. I fully agree with you that the tars are often waving above the wheat which is struggling on in a sickly way to keep itself alive. This is surely not as our Lord intended, and, if not, why might not this association be one of the plants our Father has planted for it seems to have taken root and the fowls are lodging in its branches.

Its influence continues to widen and it is yielding good results in Christianity, temperance and morality. Our Lord taught us on the mount that He was the vine and we the branches and by our works (not words) were we to be known. These people all seem to be earnest workers for good in the Master's vineyard. The chairman and secretary are warm friends of mine. All come together with full baskets and don't sit on the lid either. Come, brothers, let's get in the swim. OLD LOUDOUN.

Treaty of Peace. A treaty of peace between Guatemala, Salvador and Honduras was signed yesterday on board the United States cruiser Marblehead on the high seas off the Guatemalan coast.

There was a strenuous discussion and some difficulty in reaching mutually acceptable conditions. The Mexican minister, Senor Gamboa, was active in assisting in bringing about an agreement. The peace commissioners adopted resolutions thanking the Presidents of the United States and Mexico for their intervention.

President Roosevelt was unofficially informed last night of the signing of the treaty of peace between Guatemala, Salvador and Honduras yesterday on board the American cruiser Marblehead. The news was very gratifying, but it was said no statement would be given out by the President until word of the successful culmination of the negotiations had been received by the United States and Mexico reaches Sagamore Hill through official channels. This will probably be today.

The State Department last night was advised of the signing of the treaty of peace by the representatives of the belligerent republics aboard the Marblehead.

Virginia News.

The "boom" lots acquired by Rockbridge county at tax sales will be sold at auction in October.

John H. Sacey died at his home in Fredericksburg yesterday after a short illness, aged 69 years. He served in the Confederate navy.

W. G. Morris, of Phoenix, contractor for the new system of waterworks for Fredericksburg, has begun the work of building the standpipes and placing the pipes over the town. The system will be completed about Dec. 1.

John P. Kibben, a young blacksmith, of Page county, after several years' experimenting, has discovered a method of welding copper and steel, and also a method of tempering copper to such a degree that it can be made into edged tools.

Benjamin F. Currell, at one time a prominent contractor of Fredericksburg, died yesterday evening at the home of his son-in-law, L. L. Layton, in that city, after an illness of several years, aged 78 years. He was a Confederate veteran.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Adams, of Middleburg, to the marriage of their daughter Mary to Dr. John English Eyster, of the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md. The wedding will take place in the Baptist church at Middleburg on Wednesday, August 8.

Crude petroleum was discovered at Norfolk yesterday in an excavation made for a large mercantile building. The oil oozed to the surface around piles that had been driven in the ground. The flow was examined by an expert oil man, who expressed the opinion that oil may exist in large quantities in the vicinity.

At Forest Depot yesterday J. B. Queensbury, who was charged with having caused the death of his wife some weeks ago, had a hearing before Justices Walker and Burt, and was acquitted. A dozen witnesses were examined for the prosecution and J. J. and T. K. Terrell for the defense, the latter testifying that the deceased died from typhoid fever.

Mr. W. C. Phalen, of the Geological Survey, has returned to Washington from Rappahannock county, where he made an examination of the copper deposits near Little Washington. The report will be forthcoming in a short time. Citizens of Rappahannock have known of these deposits for a long while, and it is believed they are worth working. The deposits, not the citizens, though either construction might well be true, for there are many prosperous farmers in old Rappahannock, where cattle-raising, fruit-growing and diversified agriculture generally are sources of wealth.

Belit's Public Bequest.

It was announced in London yesterday that the will of Alfred Beit, the South African millionaire, leaves the property known as Bostell's Jagar, near Hamburg, to the city of Hamburg, to be held for the people. It is this not practicable, the city is authorized to realize on the property 20 years after Mr. Beit's death, and apply the proceeds to charitable purposes of the state of Hamburg, the maintenance of the property to be defrayed by the revenue from the hotel on the property. Other requests are:

$1,000,000 to the University of Johannesburg.

$1,000,000 to educational and charitable purposes in Rhodesia.

$8,000,000 in trust to facilitate communication along the Cape to Cairo railway.

Paintings are left to the British National Institution and $2,000,000 to educational purposes.

Mr. Beit left large sums to relatives, numerous legacies to friends and gifts to clerics and servants. The residue of his estate, real and personal, is bequeathed to his brother, Otto Beit, absolutely. The will is dated April 4, 1905.

Underground Water in Virginia. One of the most important resources of the broad coastal plain of Virginia is the underground water. Recent preliminary studies have shown that these waters are exceptionally good, and their development will result in an increased prosperity throughout the whole region. The conditions are favorable for obtaining artesian supplies, there being few localities east of the granite boundary stretching from Washington, through Richmond, south to North Carolina line, in which good ground water cannot be obtained. These artesian flows are especially strong in the lowlands along the coast, and they can be obtained almost anywhere throughout eastern Virginia. The water is found at the surface of the granite underlying the entire region at varying depths, and also from at least three water-bearing strata in the soft overlying deposits.

The Panama Bonds. Bids were opened at the Treasury Department late yesterday afternoon for the $30,000,000 ten-thirty Panama canal bonds under Secretary Shaw's circular of July 2, and although no bids were made until tomorrow or later it is evident that the entire issue has been subscribed for at an average of from 103.94 to 103.96. Secretary Shaw is deeply gratified at the great success of the Panama canal loan. The average bid is 103.97. The lowest price at which any of the bonds will be sold is 103.63. Fisk & Robinson, of New York, will probably get the bulk of the bonds at prices ranging from 104 to 103.63. All bids below 103.50 were thrown aside without being considered.

There were probably 2,500 bidders, and the loan was oversubscribed many times.

Mutual Sues Fields. The Mutual Life served complaints yesterday in New York in two actions against Andrew C. Fields, formerly the company's superintendent of the department of supplies, one claiming $1,746,000 for Mr. Fields' misconduct in procuring a grossly in excess of the reasonable value, and the other action alleging fraud and asking an accounting of money alleged to have been received by Fields by means of fraudulent bills and vouchers. It is expected that another action against Fields of a more serious nature will be based on yesterday's complaints.

It is claimed that the system of alleged false bills and vouchers was corruptedly converted between Fields, Lyander W. Lawrence, of the Globe Printing Company, and others at present unknown to the company.

It is always well to have a box of salve in the house. Sunburn, cuts, bruises, piles and boils yield to De Witt's Ointment. Sold by W. F. Coughton & Co., 401 King street.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Situation in St. Petersburg. St. Petersburg, July 21.—Out of the chaos which has existed during the last few days, one feature of the new situation has impressed itself on every citizen. This is the fact that the government, temporarily at least, again completely dominates affairs. With the restoration to the ruling power of its disputed authority it is equally evident that the reactionary influences which have steadily combated the revolution are practically in complete control.

Advices received today state that the situation at Syzran, the town in the government of Simbirsk which was burned in December, has been completely restored. The town has been completely wiped out by the fire. Many deaths have occurred in the conflagration. The condition of the survivors of the fire is pitiable. The people were forced to flee for their lives and saved few of their possessions. Thousands spent last night in the open air, having no protection. Supplies are being sent to the sufferers from Kuznetsk, Samara, and Stavropol. The local authorities are erecting tents for the use of the homeless victims of the fire. The police have positive evidence that the fire was of incendiary origin.

Hibernian Officers.

Saratoga, N. Y., July 21.—The national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, which assembled here last Tuesday, adjourned at 6 o'clock this morning after electing the following officers: and selecting Indianapolis for the next convention: National President, Matthew Cummings, of Boston; National Vice President, John E. Regan, of St. Paul, Minn.; National Secretary, James E. Carroll, of Columbus, O.; National Treasurer, John F. Quinn, of Joliet, Ill.; Directors, H. F. Morgan, of Washington, D. C.; Edward McChrystal, of New York; Dr. W. J. O'Brien, of Pennsylvania; Dr. M. J. Byrne, of Indianapolis; and John P. Kelly, of Milwaukee, Wis. The ladies' auxiliary also elected: National President, Miss Anna M. J. of Saratoga, Pa.; National Vice President, Mrs. Mary McCarthy, of Massachusetts; National Secretary, Mrs. Duros, of New York; and National Treasurer, Mrs. Daly, of Minnesota.

Wedding.

London, July 21.—Austen Chamberlain, son of Joseph Chamberlain, former Colonial Secretary, and Miss Ivy Muriel Dundas, daughter of Col. H. L. Dundas, were married today, at St. Margaret's in the presence of a large assemblage of the ultra fashionable, of London. Mrs. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, was present accompanied by Miss Chamberlain. Joseph Chamberlain could not attend. Prominent in the assembly were leading politicians of both parties, including Premier Arthur Balfour and others. Many lavish presents, including one from King Edward, were bestowed upon the bridal couple. The marriage was one of the events of the social season and great crowds of people gathered in the streets about Westminster to witness the entry of the nuptial guests and the wedding party.

Arrest of a Bank Clerk.

New York, July 21.—The arrest early this morning of Edward Frost, a clerk in the National Park Bank, No. 214 Broadway, on a charge of theft from the institution, gave rise to the report that the bank had lost a large sum of money recently through the manipulations of one or more of its trusted employees. But the warrant calling for the arrest of Frost specifically stated that $150 only had been stolen. Frost had been with the National Park Bank for fifteen years and was entrusted with the handling of large sums of money. It is stated that Frost lost considerable money in speculation. His salary was $2,000 a year.

The Missing Girl.

Belchertown, Mass., July 21.—Despite the suspicion that Miss Winzola Goodell, the missing daughter of Postmaster Goodell, of Dwight, was murdered by a degenerate, the authorities have discovered absolutely nothing that will even serve as a clue either as to the whereabouts of the body or to the time and manner in which she met her death. In fact, after two weeks of hard work, they are now forced to admit that they have accomplished absolutely nothing that will be of material assistance either as to the discovery of a criminal, providing there is one, or in determining the manner of the girl's death.

Family Ties and Obligations.

New York, July 21.—Cardinal Gibbons says that the remedy for corporate abuses and social and civic unhealthiness is a fuller realization of the family ties and the obligation of family relations. His eminence is summing up Bishop Foley, of Detroit, and Father Duffy, of Brooklyn, at Shinnecock Hills, L. I. Asked about the possibility of the appointment of another American cardinal, his eminence said: "Who knows? His Holiness alone can say what ought to be done. What ought to be done will be done in due time."

Sensational Book to be Published.

Geneva, Switzerland, July 21.—Rifat Bey, son of one of the chiefs of the Sultan's secret police, has written a book which will shortly be published, giving in sensational and revolting detail facts regarding the doings of the Turkish secret service system. Rifat's father, who recently died, kept a diary which the son secured. The Sultan upon learning that Rifat had his father's diary, sent an emissary here to try purchase the young man's silence, but was unsuccessful.

Rockefeller Sails for Home.

Oberburg, France, July 21. The Hamburg-American line steamer Amerika, with John D. Rockefeller on board, sailed from this port for New York, at ten o'clock Friday night. Mr. Rockefeller was much fatigued by the journey from Compiegne, where he has been sojourning, and had to be helped to ascend the gangplank from the pier to the main deck of the Amerika. The crowd on the deck cheered Mr. Rockefeller when they recognized him.

Lawyer Stillman's Condition.

Lisieux, France, July 21.—For the first time since he was injured in an automobile accident on Wednesday, the physicians who are attending Thomas E. Stillman, the New York lawyer, today expressed some hope of his recovery. Mr. Stillman's condition has been regarded as very serious, but the doctors now believe that unless unforeseen complications set in, he will be restored to health.

The Thaw Case.

New York, July 21.—The efforts of Harry Thaw's counsel Clifford W. Harbridge, to obtain all the papers in the Thaw case from former Judge Oloott, whose law firm was dismissed by Thaw because it was their purpose to enter an insanity plea as his defense, has brought it out that alienists who were retained by Judge Oloott made no written report. Should Justice McLean on Monday order former Judge Oloott to turn over all the papers in the Thaw case to Mr. Harbridge, there will be no record from the alienists. No secret is made of the fact that Allan McLean Hamilton and Dr. Charles L. Dean, the alienists, have told Judge Oloott that Thaw is insane. Judge Oloott has announced that as the two alienists are under a retainer by Mrs. William Thaw, that when their written reports are made they will not pass out of her possession. If Harry Thaw's mother fails to persuade her son that it is for his best interest to accept the opinion that an insanity defense is the only one to save him from the electric chair, her lawyers will then appear before the Supreme Court and ask for the reports of the alienists, and ask for the appointment of a commission. It may be that prior to this proceeding she will go before the court and seek appointment as a guardian of her son's person on the ground that he is mentally incompetent and without funds. Should the court appoint her as guardian, she will be in position to ask for the appointment of a sanity commission. While the White family will take no direct action or take no co-operative move with the Thaw family in the appointment of a commission, it is understood, that they will not oppose the appointment of a commission.

Mrs. William Thaw, during her visit today, made a last appeal to her son that he consent to have a commission appointed to inquire into his sanity. Harry Thaw remained unresponsive. His mother then told him, it is stated, that he would petition the courts for the appointment of a commission to inquire into his sanity and also that she be appointed guardian of his person and his estate.

Mrs. Stanford White will leave for Europe early in August and it is thought that she will remain abroad until after the Thaw case has been disposed of.

The Panama Canal Bonds.

Washington, July 21.—Secretary Shaw will today make a partial allotment of the Panama canal bonds among the successful bidders. All those who bid higher than 103.885 will receive bonds. All national bank bids 103.50 or higher will be designated as depositories of public money. To those bidders whose offers were among the highest, but who were not among the successful ones, will be unknown to the treasury he will make the proposition that they pay, by August first, the premium on the bonds for which they bid, whereupon he will allot them their securities. In this way he expects to ascertain whether there will be any bidders that fail to make good. Until then it cannot be ascertained just how many of the bonds will go to Fisk and Robinson. They will, however, get the bulk of them.

Secretary Shaw is very much pleased with the success of the sale and the good prices obtained. The corrected list of bidders has not yet been prepared but it is certain that it will get over 104 for nearly $15,000,000 or about half of the total issue, and only a fraction below that for the balance. When it is considered that the existing 2-per cent consols were selling at 103½ when the Panama bonds were first offered the fact that the secretary has been able to sell the new issue at a higher figure is remarkable.

Further examination of the list of bidders shows that all those who bid as high as 103.75 will get their bonds and if any of the higher individual bidders default the limit may go down to 103.73. That is, however, the rock bottom.

Married on Deathbed.

Scranton, Pa., July 21.—Anthony Stip, aged 40, a miner, who was injured three weeks ago while at work, when informed by the doctors in the hospital this morning that he had but a few hours to live, sent for Mrs. Eletha Kramer, his housekeeper, and was married to her by Alderman Ruddy. Stip made a will a few days ago leaving all his property to Mrs. Kramer. At the conclusion of the marriage ceremony, Stip sank back upon his pillow and died. Stip had been married before, but owing to marital troubles secured a divorce about five years ago from his wife. Mrs. Kramer has been his housekeeper since that time and since the accident has nursed him. It was to reward her for this kindness that Stip wished to marry her and bequeath his property to her. Mrs. Kramer's first husband has been dead about seven years. She is still a young appearing woman and is considered handsome.

Honors Upon Dreyfus.

Paris, July 21.—The conferring of honors upon Dreyfus, the rewards of which his countrymen are eager to repay the dishonor heaped upon him and ostracism, was carried out today when the reinstated officer was made a Knight of the Legion of Honor. At the Ecole Militaire, where he was degraded twelve years ago, Dreyfus appeared this afternoon, wearing his new uniform of a French Major, and, in the presence of the troops, was officially decorated with the cross of the Legion. The commanding officer then embraced Major Dreyfus in the name of the President of the Republic.

$2,000 Worth of Jewelry Stolen.

Cleveland, O., July 21.—At noon today with a crowd of looters, business men and others on the street in front of the store, Brunner's jewelry store, 58 Euclid avenue, near Public Square, was robbed of about $2,000 worth of jewelry taken from a show case on the side walk.

Sent Congratulations.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 21.—President Roosevelt this morning wired his congratulations to the officers of the German, Salvador and Honduras as upon the successful outcome of the peace negotiations. President Roosevelt spent the day quietly at Sagamore Hill.

County Assessor Waylaid.

I. W. Conley, of Leslie, D. D., Assessor of Stanley County, relates the following: "I was waylaid by a complication of throat and lung troubles, bronchitis, and a terrible cough, which had affected me for years, when I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. Relief came almost immediately, and in a short time permanent cure resulted. No other medicine compares with it as a sure and quick cure for coughs and colds. It cures after other remedies have failed. Every bottle guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free."

The Market.

Georgetown, July 21.—Wheat 70½.

The Hartje Divorce Case.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 21.—Declaring that the Perkins detective had made him drunk when he made his retraction of the deposition in the Hartje divorce case, Clifford Hooe, the former coachman, in his statement made to Assistant District Attorney John S. Robb, now declares that the story suit was a fabrication throughout. He goes into details as to how the deposition was taken and says that he was paid over $500 at different times for making the deposition. An unfounded rumor was circulated in Pittsburg, Pa., today to the effect that Augustus Hartje had shot himself. He later appeared in a law office.

Divorcees Separate.

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 21.—The Rev. Charles W. Savidge yesterday preached a revival sermon on divorce asserting that divorced persons who again entered upon matrimony were unwed in the eyes of God. The sermon was listened to by the Rev. J. D. Christie and his wife, both of whom have been divorced before they married. Mr. Christie and his wife, after the sermon, approached the altar and publicly announced they would discontinue the marriage relation, as they had seen a new light but would continue to live together under the same roof.

Excursion Train Wrecked.

Denver, Colo., July 21.—Elk's special excursion train was wrecked near Tolland, on the Denver & North Western and Pacific Railroad, according to a message from Grand Excelsior Hotel Melvin, asking that relief be sent. Later information says no one was killed or injured. The engine jumped the track. Undertakers were ready to meet the train but their services were not needed. Two thousand excursionists on several sections of the train were held while repairs were made.

Sick Marines.

Boston, July 21.—The United States Cruiser Columbia, arrived at Quarantine, today from Panama, via Porto Rico, bringing 300 marines, of whom 165 are suffering from malaria. Nineteen of this number are seriously ill, and not one of the 165 has left the ship. The sick marines were taken to the Naval Hospital in Chelsea, which now has the largest sick list for some years, nearly every ward being filled.

Arrival of American Delegates.

Washington, D. C., July 21.—A dispatch received here from Rio Janeiro, Brazil, states that the delegates from America to the International Congress, with the exception of VanLeer Polk, have arrived there. The Congress will probably convene on Monday next. Secretary Root, who was last reported at Pernambuco, on board the cruiser Charleston, will not reach Rio before the end of the month.

Fined Twenty Dollars.

Among the cases before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning was that of a youth named Tanney Trigger, who had been arrested for disorderly conduct and flourishing a pistol on Lee street. It appeared that he had been come incensed because a woman named Ada Smith living in one of the houses, had refused any longer to keep company with him and he had threatened to kill her in consequence. Trigger not being of lawful age, had been refused admission to one of the houses some time ago, and the Smith woman had been admonished for receiving his attentions. She had, however, met him since. Officers Gill and Sherwood took Trigger in charge last night and Justice Caton fined him $20 for carrying concealed weapons. He also fined the Smith woman $5 for receiving attentions from the youth after ascertaining that he was under age.

Wanted to Take His Wife from the Steamer.

A man who gave his name as Dean, and who said he was a Washington eye doctor, appeared at the station house this morning and wanted to invoke the law to prevent his wife from proceeding to Nominol on a steamer then lying at one of the city wharves. He was told that the city authorities had no jurisdiction in such cases, and that so long as his wife remained peaceable on the steamer she could not be molested. Dean asserted that the Indian influence had been exercised upon his wife and that she had been induced to leave him and return to Westmoreland county, and that at the time she was locked up on the steamer. He later sought a lawyer but was compelled to see the steamer leave with his wife aboard.

The Late R. A. Hewitt.

As was stated in the Gazette, the body of Robert A. Hewitt, of Water-l, Prince William county, was found in the Potomac river yesterday. Hewitt had left home on Wednesday to attend the horse show at Manassas, and from there started for Washington on Thursday to visit his brother, Wm. E. Hewitt, a navy yard mechanic. There were no bruises on the body, and it is thought by the police that Hewitt fell from a steamer. The coroner pronounced the case one of accidental drowning. Hewitt was a young unmarried man. He leaves no family except one brother, William Hewitt, of Washington.

Interesting Address.

Members of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church South of Alexandria, Washington and the surrounding country met last night at Del Ray where Rev. J. Howard Wells delivered an interesting and instructive address on Bible study. The speaker urged upon his hearers the importance of making themselves thoroughly familiar with the scriptures, and portrayed the spiritual blessings which invariably accompany such a course. Several ministers were present at the meeting. At the close refreshments were served.

Charged with Using Forged Order.

Inspector C. B. Keene of the Washington postoffice force yesterday directed the arrest of a man named Thomas W. Cumberland, who is charged with having obtained registered and other letters by a forged order from the postmaster at Deaneville, Fairfax county. Cumberland is a laborer, and was working in Washington and living in Georgetown. He will be arraigned before United States Commissioner Garnett in this city.

Will of the Late Frank Hume.

The will of Frank Hume, dated September 16, 1886, was yesterday filed for probate in Washington. The entire estate is devised to the widow, Emma P. Hume. Mrs. Hume is also named executrix. At the end of the will Mr. Hume had pasted a clipping containing three stanzas of the poem "When I am Dead."

Royal Street Paving.

It is understood that arrangements have been made for paving in front of all the property on Royal street between King and Prince, and that no cobblestone pavement will remain on that block.

Alexandria Day at Luna Park.

Preparations for Alexandria Day (July 30) are still in progress. There is reason to believe that it will prove to be one of the most enjoyable that has been experienced since the opening of Luna Park. The committee in charge, of which Mayor Frederick J. Paff is chairman, is working hard to make the affair a huge success. The Friendship Fire Engine Company, which has taken a distinct and important place in the historical associations of Alexandria, will be put into active service. The old machine has been refitted and made as good as new, and is now guaranteed to throw a stream of water 150 feet. Manned by the crew which forms the present association, the ancient engine will give an exhibition at Luna Park as one of the features of the day. Another interesting feature will be a sham battle in the afternoon between the Red Men of Alexandria and Alexandria Light Infantry. The Red Men will impersonate the bloodthirsty Indians at the Oyster massacre, and will be in full Indian regalia, with war paint and battle head dress in fierce array. The American soldiers will be impersonated by the Light Infantry. There will be a grand carnival of merriment for everyone, and Manager George E. Gill of Luna Park has arranged for the first production in this country of the world noted shadow dance, on the dancing pavilion floor. Tickets for the event will be in the hands of the committee and the day will be for the benefit of the Alexandria Hospital.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

James Jones, arrested by Officer Garvey charged with improper conduct on the street, was fined $5.

Tanney Trigger, arrested by Officers Gill and Sherwood charged with carrying concealed weapons, was fined $20.

Ada Smith, arrested by Officer Lyles charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Kate Hughes, colored, arrested by Officers Bettin and Smith charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Henry Mason, colored, arrested by the same officers for assaulting Fannie Saunders, was fined $10.

Cut His Head.

Considerable blood was seen on north Columbus street pavements early this morning which caused many speculations until the cause was ascertained. Dink Dudley, colored, went to sleep while in a sitting posture leaning against a telegraph post in the northeastern part of the city last night. He fell over and his head came in contact with a clam shell which cut a deep gash in his forehead. He proceeded to a physician's office on north Columbus street, trailing blood in his path.

The Church Lot.

It is understood that the trustees of the M. E. Church South, who as stated yesterday, have just purchased the lot on Washington street south of the church building, may at some future time erect a building on the lot suitable for church work, and may also erect a parsonage thereon. The lot is a most desirable one and adds materially to the value of the church property.

Electric Wires.

Mayor Paff last night held a conference with Superintendent Colvin, of the electric railway, concerning the continual falling of wires in the city, which is a menace to life. Mr. Colvin informed the Mayor that as soon as the material could be secured new wires would be strung along the electric road throughout the city limits.

Cries of Murder.

Cries of murder were heard last night at the intersection of Duke and Columbus streets where Mary Rucker, colored, was being assaulted by John Poindester, also colored. Officers Roberts and Nicholson hastened to the scene, but Poindester had in the meantime made his escape. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

Collision Damages.

In the cross libel suit of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company against the schooner Mary P. Mosquito, growing out of a collision of the schooner with the steamer Norfolk last spring, Judge Waddill, of the Federal Court at Norfolk has assessed damages to the steamer at $7,500 and to the Mosquito at $1,350.

Bull Run Chapter.

Bull Run Chapter, U. D. C., of which a number of Alexandria ladies are members, will meet today at Groveton, near Manassas, where memorial services will be held. The Alexandrians left here on the Southern Railway this morning. Mr. J. R. Caton of this city will be the orator for the occasion.

Charged with Entering Post-office.

Edward Nash, colored, charged with entering the postoffice at Acconituk, was arrested today by U. S. Deputy Marshal J. F. Glover. The case will be examined this afternoon by U. S. Commissioner Garnett.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The schooner Five Sisters, from the lower Potomac with lumber to Smoot & Co., has arrived.

The weather has been sultry, the mercury ran up to 93°. At 3:15 this evening rain fell and the temperature became cooler.

A lively scrap took place at the lower end of King street between a soldier and several civilians last night. No arrests were made.

There was an abundant supply of country produce in market this morning. Prices were virtually the same as those which prevailed last Saturday.

A pistol shot was heard on south Washington street last night. Officer Nicholson hastened to the locality, but he was unable to ascertain who discharged the weapon.

Chief Goods, of the police force, says the law against throwing trash, &c., in the street will be enforced. He says that merchants have gotten in the habit of sweeping trash from their stores into the street, which practice must be stopped.

Calculi, Gout, Rheumatism and All Diseases Dependent Upon a Uric Acid Diathesis.

Samuel O. L. Potter, A.M., M.D., M.R.C.P., London, Professor of the Principles and Practice of Medicine and Clinical Medicine in the College of Physicians and Surgeons of San Francisco, Cal., in his "Handbook of Materia Medica, Pharmacy and Therapeutics," in the edition of remedies under the head of "Chronic Bright's Disease," says: "Mineral waters, especially the BUFFALO LITHIA WATER, has many peculiarly the BUFFALO LITHIA WATER is highly recommended."

George Walcott Boydland, A.M., M.D., of Paris, Doctor of Medicine, of the Faculty of Paris, in the New York Medical Journal, August 22, 1896, says: "There is no remedy as absolutely specific in all forms of Albuminuria and Bright's Disease, whether acute or chronic, as BUFFALO LITHIA WATER, Spring No. 2, accompanied by a milk diet. In all cases of pregnancy, where albumin is found in the urine, as late as the last week before confinement, if this water and a milk diet are prescribed, the albumin disappears rapidly from the urine and the patient has a positive guarantee against puerperal convulsions."

T. Griewald Comstock, A.M., M.D., of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have often prescribed BUFFALO LITHIA WATER in Gouty and Rheumatic conditions and in Renal Calculi, accompanied by Renal Colic, and always with the most satisfactory results. In Renal Calculi, where there is an excess of Uric Acid, it is especially efficacious."

Divorce For Rich Woman.

An interlocutory decree of divorce was on Thursday granted by Justice Blanche and, of the Supreme Court in New York, to Mrs. Charles McViney Rogers, whose husband is a broker in grain, with offices in the Bourse Building, Philadelphia.
Mrs. Rogers gained the custody of the only child, Natalie, 3 years 11.
Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were married at the Waldorf-Astoria November 24, 1896, by Mayor Strong, the bride being a sister of Louis A. and Alfred H. Hirschman.
About a year ago Mrs. Rogers was informed that her husband had been having attention to another woman, and after obtaining proof, she retained counsel to bring suit in her behalf. The case was referred to Edward S. Rapallo.
He reported in favor of Mrs. Rogers.
The decree contains no provision as to alimony, inasmuch as Mrs. Rogers has a large private fortune, but it does not deprive her of the right to apply for allowance for the support of herself and her child.

Gomper's Denounced.

The Wisconsin Federation of Labor in Madison yesterday adopted a resolution that the public conscience has not been satisfied by the action of the various universities and libraries, and that no war can be justified by the return to a landed public of only part of a theft.
According to the resolution, public gifts from the rich should not be accepted. A state of social law is recommended instead.
The resolution was adopted by a vote of 84 to 18. Another resolution was adopted condemning President Samuel Gomper, of the American Federation of Labor,
because of his friendship with the men of evil. The resolution also criticizes the United States judges, and asks that they be elected instead of appointed.
Revelations of corruption in the insurance world were cited, and compulsory insurance, State or national, is urged.

FINANCIAL

Is Dependent Upon You
And you should think of the safety of your money. Every day you hear something that strongly emphasizes the fact that you cannot be too careful in selecting investments for your savings. Any business man will tell you that it is better to be contented with 3 PER CENT. INTEREST and the absolute safety afforded by an account in the SAV-INGS DEPARTMENT of this strong institution, than to risk your money in schemes that offer a higher rate and doubtful security.
It is useless to attempt to save your money at home; the temptation to borrow from the fund is ever present; the only way to save successfully is to seek the protection and advantages afforded by the safe, sound and conservative institution and deposit your money where it will earn interest compounded—you will then think twice before disturbing the account.
Why not save your money? Open an account with us TODAY—It's simple and ONE DOL-LAR will start you.
